GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE NORTHWEST DISTRICT JR. LIVESTOCK SHOW

NOTICE: There are MANY changes and additions throughout all sections of this publication. Please read all sections carefully. Exhibitors are responsible for compliance with all rules.

I. Interpretations, Amendments and Violations

1. The Northwest District Jr. Livestock Show, through its authorized superintendents and division committees, reserves the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and to determine and settle all questions and differences connected with or incidental to the show. Any violation of these rules will automatically result in disqualification.
2. Exhibitors are required to familiarize themselves with all rules.
3. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will cause forfeiture of premiums and privileges and will be considered sufficient cause to bar said exhibitor from future participation in the Northwest District Jr. Livestock Show.

II. Nonliability to Exhibitors and Patrons

1. Exhibitors and spectators assume the risk of damage or loss either to persons or property from all and every case including fire, the elements, violations of law or regulations either on the part of the Greater Enid Chamber of Commerce, its servants, agents or employees; and being the understanding and agreement between the exhibitors and spectators that the Greater Enid Chamber of Commerce incurs no liability or obligation to them other than to permit them the use of the facilities and grounds of the Garfield County Fair Property.

III. Eligibility

1. This show is limited to Oklahoma 4-H Club members and/or FFA Agriculture Education members whose Chapter or Club is in the following counties: Alfalfa, Blaine, Garfield, Grant, Kay, Kingfisher, Major, Noble, Woods or Logan.

IX. Conduct

1. The Northwest District Junior Livestock Show Committee adopts the "Oklahoma 4-H and FFA Show Ring Code of Ethics, revision 8/8/95."
2. Only exhibitors and show officials will be allowed in the show ring while animals are being judged.
3. All exhibitors are encouraged to wear a vest, shirt, t-shirt, or jacket of the appropriate color of the organization they represent.
4. Misconduct on the part of any exhibitor may result in their disqualification from the show and forfeiture of any awards or premiums.

X. Showing

1. Each exhibitor must show their own animal unless they have more than one in a class or they have a signed statement from their Agriculture Education instructor or Extension Educator indicating illness or other school activity.
2. If an exhibitor/animal does not appear for the correct class and should have been in a previous, lighter-weight class, they are disqualified.
3. Misrepresenting the age of the animal or the class in which it is shown is prohibited.
4. A total of four (4) lambs (may be ewes or wethers), four (4) swine (may be barrow or gilt), four (4) wether goats, and four (4) steers may be shown by one exhibitor in the market classes and four (4) heifers and (4) doe goats in breeding classes.

XI. Care and Grooming

1. All exhibitors are to care for and groom their animals throughout the show.
2. The superintendent in charge will have the authority to remove from the show any animal if it poses a threat to others or is neglected by owner.
3. The use of any drug or chemical compound that is not approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in meat animals is prohibited. All animals shall be subject to tests for substances that exceed the acceptable levels established by the United States Department of Agriculture, the Food and Drug Administration, the Food Animal Residue Avoidance Databank and the Environmental Protection Agency. A positive test will result in disqualification. The owner shall assume full responsibility for any violation of the FDA regulations concerning withdrawal time on all medication. A licensed veterinarian should administer all medication unless one is not available. All exhibitors must contact the specie superintendent whenever medication needs to be administered. Proper documentation must be completed prior to any medication being given.

4. Any attempt to change natural color of an animal, either purebred or crossbred, by changing the color of hair, fleece or skin at any point, spot or area of the animal's body is prohibited.
5. Treating or massaging any part of the body internally or externally with an irritant, counter-irritant, including air, or other substance to temporarily straighten a weak back or loin or produce unnatural animation is prohibited.

2. Misconduct on the part of any exhibitor may result in their disqualification from the show and forfeiture of any awards or premiums.
3. The Northwest District Jr. Livestock Show reserves the right to prorate premiums if necessary.

XIII. Protests

1. Contact the Northwest District Jr. Livestock Show Superintendent for information on protest policy and procedure. All protests must be made before the selection of the grand or supreme of the respective species and must accompany a $250 deposit.

XIV. Showmanship Contest

1. The purpose of this program is to encourage showmanship and effort among our exhibitors.
2. All exhibitors in each class will be competing for showmanship in that class.
3. An exhibitor may only win one showmanship award per species.
4. All exhibitors will be competing for showmanship upon entry to the ring, whether their animal is placed in the class or not. Therefore, exhibitors are encouraged to use best efforts of showmanship at all times while present in the ring.
5. All decisions by the judges as to showmanship will be final.

XV. Lamb Lead Contest

1. The objective of the lamb lead is to present the participant and the animal in the most attractive manner possible, to promote the use of wool and sheep products, and to improve the image of the sheep show. The contest is designed to present the beauty and versatility of the wool fiber as well as the lamb. High fashion is not the ultimate goal, rather clothing which is appropriate for the personality and life style of each participant.
2. Judging Standards:
